

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Educational Dynamix Founder Dr. Clemmie Whatley Joins Faculty of Mercer University

ATLANTA, GA – July 3, 2008 – Educational Dynamix, an educational services firm that focuses on the learning and development of educators and children through innovative and engaging programs and services, announced today that Dr. Clemmie Whatley has been named an assistant professor in the Tift College of Education for Mercer University.

Dr. Whatley will begin teaching Integrated Curriculum and Instruction and Classroom Management/Applied Learning on the Douglas campus during the fall semester.

Dr. Whatley graduated with a B.A. in Mathematics from Clark Atlanta University and earned an M.S. in Applied Mathematics from Georgia Institute of Technology, where she was one of the first female minority graduates. She completed her Ph.D. in Educational Studies at Emory University. She also holds an Ed.S. from the State University of West Georgia in the areas of Secondary Mathematics and Educational Leadership. She is certified in secondary mathematics and educational leadership. Her educational and research focus is in mathematics education, organizational design, professional development, technology and research and evaluation. She also is a certified senior professional in human resources and quality facilitator.

About Mercer University

Founded in 1833, Mercer University is a dynamic and comprehensive center of undergraduate, graduate and professional education. The University has 7,300 students; 11 schools and colleges – liberal arts, law, pharmacy, medicine, business, engineering, education, theology, music, nursing and continuing and professional studies; major campuses in Macon, Atlanta and Savannah; three regional academic centers across the state; a university press; two teaching hospitals — Memorial Health University Medical Center and the Medical Center of Central Georgia; educational partnerships with Warner Robins Air Logistics Center in Warner Robins and Piedmont Healthcare in Atlanta; an engineering research center in Warner Robins; a performing arts center in Macon; and a NCAA Division I athletic program. For more information, visit www.mercer.edu.

About Educational Dynamix, Inc

Educational Dynamix (EDDY), Inc. is an educational services firm that focuses on the learning and development of educators and children through innovative and engaging programs, products and services. EDDY was created to empower parents, educators and school systems with specific knowledge, skills and strategies to enhance the educational systems and allow every child an opportunity for a bright future. In 2006, EDDY introduced the products of Musical Mathematics to help informal educators, parents and children, community organizations and faith-based organizations address the void in learning for children. EDDY is a non-profit organization based in Atlanta, Georgia. For more information, visit www.eddynamix.org.

--end--

Contacts:

Jennifer Koon
Michael Mackenzie Communications
770.645.7990
jenniferk@michaelmackenzie.com